Romans 14 (part 2)

The Definition of Christian Freedom

- In areas of life where God has not specifically commanded a course of action, we are free to act according to our convictions and conscience.

Three Types of Christians

Weak
Strong
Pharisee

Biblical Test Case: Alcohol

John 2:6; Prov. 20:1; Psalm 104:14-15; Deut. 14:25-26

Modern Test Case: Vaccination

Digging Deeper into Romans 14 (part 2)

1. Let's first remember Tony's definition of Christian freedom
 - In areas of life where God has not specifically commanded a course of action, we are free to act according to our convictions and conscience.

Now Read through Romans 14:1-15:7 to refresh ourselves on the context.

2. Tony suggested a third type of believer besides the weak and strong, that is the pharisee. Do you remember the definition of the pharisee? Have you had experience with that type of Christian?
3. In regard to alcohol, how do we reconcile Proverbs 20:1 with Deut. 14:22-26?
4. Let's see if we can have a godly, edifying conversation about vaccinations. This has divided Christians like many other areas of freedom have over the course of history. How do we apply the principles from Romans 14 to this issue?
